able features of that meeting was the most interesting discourse given by E. C. Morse of Putnam, who spoke on the question of revaluation of taxable property. He referred to the fact that Windham had been fortunate in having a revaluation, but the work, while it had been done exceedingly well, was not perfect. He said that in Putnam it was voted to have a revaluation of the taxable property. In his opinion it was an excellent thing to have a large grand list with a small rate of taxation rather than a small other was the Eastern Connecticut Development committee. The first meeting was held at 2 o'clock and was the Farmers' association. President John C. Tracy of the Willimantic Board of Trade and Business Men's Association, Inc., delivered an address of welcome to the visitors and hoped that they would accomplish much in the excellent work which they intended to carrivy out. There was a possibility for great good and he had every reason to believe that the movement would bring effective results.
